LeRoy Mark Leads Movement to Have Supreme Court Hearing.

Motorists learned with interest today that Le Roy Mark intends to carry to the Supreme Court of the United States a test case of the so-called wheel-tax isw. Mr. Mark has been assured the support and co-operation of a large number of automobile owners in the effort to have the highest court in the land pass upon the law, which recently was held to be constitutional by the District Court of Appeals.

The motorists, of whom there are more than 5,000 in the District of Columbia, feel the tax is an injustice, in view of the number and amounts of other taxes they have to pay. It is understood an appeal will be made to understood an appeal will be made to the motorists for financial aid in employing prominent attorneys to prosecute the case. The revenue from the wheel-tax law, it is said, will amount to more than $50,000 a year, the tax being $3 on cars seating two persons and $2 for each additional seat.

The wheel tax was inserted in the District appropriation bill two years ago and has been fought in the Police Court and the District Court of Appeals. Assessor W. P. Richards is now planning a vigorous campaign to obtain the collection of the tax.
